Auditor Deems Alexandria Jurist's Assessment in Marshall Case Unsatisfactory.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Dec. 16. The decision of Judge Louis C. Barley fixing the taxes on omitted assessments of the estate of the late John A. Marshall is not satisfactor; to C Lee Moore. State auditor, and the latter has written Samuel G. Brent, Commonwealth's attorney, asking him to fer a motion is the name of the State for a rehearing. The decision of Judge Barley held the Marshall estate was sum of $1,67,15. The case came beore the corporation court on a metlon by the Marshall heirs for a correction of an erroneous assessment, which they claimed had been made by W. N. Lipsomb, of Manassas, examiner of records of the Sixteenth budgetal circuit the Sixteenth fudicial circuit Auditor Moore contends that Judge Barley made an error in fixing the amount of the taxes because he used the tax rate for 1914 on all of the assessments, although in a number of the city's vocational needs.
